THANKSGIVING MASS PLANNED

Noted Churchmen and Diplomats to Attend Pan American Exercises.

The twelfth annual Pan American Thanksgiving celebration in St. Patrick's Church will be attended, as in previous years, by members of the Cabinet, the diplomatic representatives of the South American republics, members of Congress and of the Judiciary, officials of the army, navy and Marine Corps, and by a number of the Washington and Baltimore clergy.

Solemn high mass will be celebrated by V. Rev. Edward G. Fitzgerald, O. P., of the Dominican College, Catholic University, assisted by members of the Dominican Order. Rev. J. A. Cunnane, of St. Andrew's Church, Baltimore, will deliver the sermon.

In the sanctuary will be Cardinal Gibbons, Rt. Rev. John Bonzano, Rt. Rev. Owen B. Corrigan, auxiliary bishop of Baltimore; Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Shahan, rector of the Catholic University; Rt. Rev. C. F. Thomas, rector of St. Patrick's, and representatives of the various religious orders of men at the university.

After the church ceremony, the South American Diplomatic Corps and members of the Cabinet will be received by Cardinal Gibbons and Archbishop Bonzano.

U. S. CAN WITHSTAND ALL WORLD'S NAVIES
Even with our navy and our fleets denied access to the sea by any conceivable combination of the other great navies of the world, America could not be defeated and forced to capitulate by naval operations alone. This is one of the great outstanding lessons of the world war as pointed out by Gen. Peyton C. March, Chief of Staff, in his annual report to Secretary of War Baker, made public yesterday.

The war proved, according to Gen. March, that America can be self-sustaining in every respect for an indefinite period—a condition true of probably no other great power—and that consequently she could not be brought to her knees by naval operations of her enemies, no matter how many or how strong.

Women's Auxiliary Elects.

A meeting of the District of Columbia Post No. 1, Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion, was held Friday afternoon. Mrs. Richard W. McMahon was elected senior vice commander; Mrs. E. J. Beaulac, junior vice commander and Miss Mildred Ralph, adjutant. The other officers will be elected at the next meeting, which will be held at the Ebbitt Hotel.

"Pinafore" to Be Put on By D. C. Opera Company

A. F. M. Greig, English comedian, will take the part of "The Right Honorable Sir Joseph Porter, K. C. B." in the initial performance of "H. M. S. Pinafore," by the new Washington National Opera Society, the date for which has not been announced.

Rollin Bond, musical director, has been training the company for weeks. Frederick Miller is in charge of the staging of the production.

Arrest 11 Wholesalers For Sugar Profiteering

Chicago, Nov. 21.—Eleven wholesale sugar dealers have been arrested and twenty-four others are expected to be taken into custody soon on charges of profiteering. Warrants for thirty-five wholesalers, jobbers and retailers were issued by a Federal commissioner. The charges were exacting an exorbitant price or conspiracy to obtain an excessive price for sugar in violation of the Lever food control law.

PASS MARK IN RED CROSS ROLL

Women of District Plan Thanksgiving Feature for Men in Hospitals.

"We have reached the 61,000 mark in memberships and returns are still coming in," said Edward B. Eynon, Jr., treasurer of the enrollment department, of the Thanksgiving victory roll call campaign of the American Red Cross at headquarters last night.

Mrs. E. B. Winkle, assistant to Miss Margery Lower, chairman of the uniformed corps, reported that the women had turned in more than 3,000 memberships and had completed their work.

Dr. Ralph Jenkins, chairman of the District of Columbia Chapter, announced yesterday the annual meeting of the chapter will be held at 4 p. m. Monday, December 1, at St. John's Parish Hall, Sixteenth street, near H street.

All of the activities of the Red Cross will be thoroughly gone into and surprising results of the work performed will be made public and officers will be elected.

Extensive preparations are being made by the Department of Military Relief, Potomac Division, American Red Cross with the co-operation of the District Chapter of the organization to make the forthcoming Thanksgiving Day at Walter Reed and St. Elizabeth's Hospitals a memorable occasion for the patients.

At St. Elizabeth's vaudeville show in the afternoon and a dance in the evening will feature the day. Prizes will be given to the winners in the athletic contest and games.

Fifty Red Cross women in uniform will be on hand to attend to the wants of the patients and will serve them apples, nuts, candies and home made jelly.

At Walter Reed Hospital the Red Cross will furnish the accessories, outside of the food, and 200 Red Cross girls will serve the boys.

Express Company Plans New Wrapping Rules

The American Railway Express Company is making final preparations for a nation-wide campaign to educate the public regarding the new shipping regulations of the express company to go into effect December 16, E. H. Goodrich, Washington agent, announced last night. Under the new regulations, the express company will refuse to accept any package weighing twenty-five pounds or over, if not packed in wooden containers, cartons of fibreglass, pulpboard, or corrugated strawboard material of specified "test strengths."

This means that after December 16, packages over the twenty-five-pound limit will not be accepted if wrapped only in paper. The regulations have no effect on packages weighing less than twenty-five pounds.

D. C. Woman Wins French War Honor

Mrs. Laurence Benet, Formerly Miss Margaret Cox, Wins Singular Distinction.

Mrs. Laurence Benet, of Paris, formerly Miss Margaret Cox, of Washington, is one of the few women who has the distinction of having received the decoration of Knight of the Legion of Honor from the French government. Her services can scarcely be enumerated, because her time during the entire war was spent in activities of many different kinds.

In addition to serving as a nurse with the American Ambulance Corps for almost three years, her greatest service was perhaps her work in connection with securing supplies and assistance for the American ambulance, and in the interests of the allies in general.

Mrs. Benet was among the women who organized the women's committee of the American ambulance, and was also active in the Duryea War Relief. She has been an ardent worker among the war refugees and wounded soldiers.

It is rather remarkable and adds to Mrs. Benet's distinction to note that her husband has the honor of having received the same decoration, now being commander.
